

Believe it or not (and it is difficult to believe!) Councillors who have supported our campaign to save allotments have been GAGGED. In our 21st century democracy (and apparently by government decree) any Councillor who has supported our campaign has forfeited the right to speak at any council meeting on the subject.

For the full story click HERE and please write to the Courier and to James Plaskitt .